

Today we are learning to:

Use question marks

What is a question?

A question is something you ask someone when you want to find something out.

How old are you?

Where in a sentence do you find a question mark?

- Question marks are found at the end of a question.

Where do you live?

- You do not need a full stop and a question mark at the end of the question – just a question mark.

Questions can begin with words like:

Who

What

Why

When

Where

How

Can

Can you think of some questions you could ask a friend or relative?
Some examples

When is your birthday?

What is your favourite colour?

Who is your favourite author?

ARE YOU READY FOR THE CHALLENGE?

Can you Complete the sentences on the 'Question Mark or Full Stop?' activity sheet attached by putting in full stops and question marks where they have been missed out?
